

The Sports and Exercise Medicine (SEM) curriculum aims to establish a countrywide competence in the knowledge base and clinical skills to support comprehensive musculoskeletal (MSK) services.

SEM MSc will provide an in-depth understanding of exercise medicine's practical applications in chronic disease states at an individual and population level.

MODULES

Population/ Public Health and Adult Musculoskeletal Medicine

Medical Emergencies/ Pharmacology